Current Committee Membership

Press Editorial Board

The MIT Press Editorial Board consists of MIT Faculty and others. The Director of the Press, a representative nominated by the Provost and to whom the Press reports, and a representative of the MIT Libraries are ex officio, non-voting members. The Board meets four or five times annually. In conjunction with the Director of the Press, it is responsible for the editorial quality of the publishing programs at the Press and it advises the Press on editorial matters. The Editorial Board reviews publishing proposals as appropriate, provides guidance to the Press Acquisitions department, participates in the formulation of editorial strategies for both the Books and Journals divisions of the Press, and fosters the exchange of ideas about new developments in scholarly research, especially as they relate to publishing opportunities.
